WEDDING SERVICE AT CLOSE
OF SALVATION ARMY SERVICE

Couple Arise From Audience and
Asked for Minister to Unite
Them.

Just as the meeting in the hall of the Volunteers of America at No. 184 Franklin avenue last night was about to close W. E. Mobley, a middle-aged man, arose and said that he would like to be married. His prospective bride, Mrs. Emma Pate, sat beside him.

The officers of the Volunteers were too amazed for utterance for the moment, but when Adjutant Smith, who is in charge of the Volunteer Mission, found voice, he said that the couple could be accommodated, provided there was a minister in the house.

It happened that Reverend T. E. Ryan was present, and arrangements for the nuptial ceremony were quickly made.

The persons who had been attending the revival gathered in a circle around the bride and bridegroom, and the Reverend Mr. Ryan spoke the words that made the couple man and wife.

Mobley secured the marriage license yesterday afternoon, and he was looking for a minister to perform the ceremony. In company with J. T. Maynard of the Central Branch of the Young Men's Christian Association, he and Mrs. Pate went to the revival service in the Volunteer Mission, where they were listening to the service that they resolved to marry, provided there was a minister on hand.

Mr. and Mrs. Mobley will make their home for the present at No. 1207 1/2 Pine street.
